Ministering truth to the body of Christ for over 35 years

As Prophecy moves ahead toward its fulfillment

We recently mailed out a short letter to numerous ministries and pastors on seeing the rising tide of violence and killings, specifically related to the hatred toward Israel and Jews. I included the recent examples of killings and threats. Some of the ill spoken is by so-called conservatives/Christians (I offered seven pages on Mike Adams and his hateful comments on Jews, Israel, and his anger toward the churches that support Israel, which is still a main threat).

We just had the 24th anniversary of September 11. Who would have thought another hideous individual attack would compound this day of remembrance

In this current newsletter, I want to honor a courageous Christian, one who presented the Gospel publicly, who defended his faith using logic and Scripture, who loved our country, and who was a friend to Israel. Charlie Kirk loved people enough to take the time to discuss and debate with them the truth. He was murdered by a despicable act of violence. By whom we still are looking into.

I'm not one to rush in and make a statement. I usually wait and see how something develops before having a conclusion. But I am compelled to say something on this weeks after.

Charlie Kirk was a man breaking up the fallow ground of our nation, reaching a young generation that has been so misled. Scripture speaks of Ps. 78:8: "A stubborn and rebellious generation, A generation that did not set its heart aright, And whose spirit was not faithful to God."

To go even deeper, we find the Bible further addresses and identifies the rebellious generation. I want to draw out a few specific points of our country, repeating the mistakes Israel made in the past. Solomon writes in Prov. 30:11-14: "There is a generation that curses its father, And does not bless its mother. There is a generation that is pure in its own eyes, Yet is not washed from its filthiness. There is a generation --oh, how lofty are their eyes! And their eyelids are lifted up. There is a generation whose teeth are like swords, And whose fangs are like knives, To devour the poor (afflicted, humble) from off the earth, And the needy from among men."

It has often been asked, can a single person change the world? Yes; we have just seen it. A person who introduced logic and biblical values into the culture on campuses (of which Rush Limbaugh used to describe them as young minds full of mush).

It's hard enough to deal with when one passes away by death, but a public assassination! Right now, as a nation we are still in shock, and we have little comprehension of what this means for the future. Some have described it as feeling like 911. Everyone does have a sense that this is "a turning point" for the country, and perhaps even more so for the church.

"All death can do to a believer is to deliver him to Jesus" (Charlie Kirk). God says, "Blessed are the deaths of his saints.” This our hope; as a Christian, Kirk continues to live, now in Heaven with the God he served, being promoted at the young age of 31. His legacy will live on with those who are here and carry the same message.

Let me make one thing clear at the onset: I’m well aware of this man’s shortcomings when it came to some of his connections and endorsements. He was young, still learning, and growing in his faith. In fact, he said, people should learn something new every day.

No one should be murdered like this for what they believe. As our shock turns to righteous anger, I want to see justice as so many others do. I want to see all those involved, those who had prior knowledge, arrested. And apparently, there may be far more than a few. We are just learning how deep this goes; it is still fluid.

Many have classified this as political assassination that has had a severe national significance, but this was not a political assassination. Yes, politics has something to do with it, but this was about a man’s faith, which he applied to his worldview on which his debates were based.

Many people appreciated what Kirk did as a voice of sanity to a wayward generation. He directly challenged those who were trying to establish themselves as the gatekeepers of knowledge and free speech in the universities. It’s far more difficult for a free thinker who is open to ideas to be indoctrinated in the current education process of the universities. As many will disallow free speech, knowing it convinces so many to exit their indoctrination, limiting any discussions in universities that were once known for their exchange of free thinking and ideas. Too many teachers turn children into Marxists, haters of America, haters of everything good. They make children into their own image.

Children have been culturized by their education, more accurately described as ‘cult’urization by indoctrination. From this hatred of the country and the West, numerous groups like Antifa were born.

Charlie Kirk’s death was an attack on open dialogue. They intentionally took the one who stood out the tallest in public. This is about censorship and intimidation, and to make sure no one has a public voice countering wokeism, communism, occultism, and selfism. We have shifted away from the traditional (spiritual) values our country once practiced. If we do not protect our freedom of speech, we will have no voice to share the gospel, to speak the words of Christ that set people free. It was just a few decades ago, when Christians were sitting in cold damp prison cells in the communistic U.S.S.R. And even today, in many countries, the same thing is happening to our brothers and sisters. Is America going to witness the same thing?

Leftism or Liberalism—Christianity or Conservative

Leftism is not the same as liberalism. The Leftist ideology does make what is clear—unclear. Narrating a college conversation, a professor explains to the students how this can all go wrong. Some of the students show the proof of what is already internally wrong by their false logic and bias. An argument I continually heard, challenging Kirk, is, where did he get his education? Who is he to tell others what is right when he has no university education? They say this because they esteem their professors as leaders who speak into their lives. Never mind that some of the greatest leaders, thinkers, and inventors were not state-school educated.

As we watch this unfold, a word of caution, our uniting by politics, conservatism, and making the gospel secondary is not the answer. Convincing arguments by law or logic are offered. But when we bring the Word of God into it, God becomes involved, and truth can be heard. It is not by power, nor by might, but by His Spirit.

Christianity and conservatism are not the same, even though most Christians are conservative in their values; not all conservatives are Christian.

Regardless, I pray, may God raise up 10,000 evangelists like Charlie Kirk to meet the needs of these lost indoctrinated souls with the gospel. We will not submit to their oligarchy for a second. Our rights are from God; our constitution is of a Republic. Our government is to be by the people, and we have had enough of being led into darkness! We intend to turn the darkness of people's lives into light.

This video Captures my sentiments.

Here, a young man testifies on Kirks influence-quite an incredible youth, gives me hope.

The 60s were indicative of love (though it was not fully authentic); we accepted each other and our differences. Today's culture is indicative of hate and increasing violence.

Violence and Assassinations

This is exactly what Jesus spoke of, referring to the violence in the days of Noah. The world has much unrest, and we are in the midst of ever-growing violence. There were four American political assassinations during the 1960s; and recently tried twice and failed on Trump. It's not like we did not know something big was coming with the continued attempts on people's lives. From watching the cold-blooded murder of Brian Thompson, the chief executive of United Healthcare, to a young girl from Ukraine on a train, to the many shootings every week. Most recent is the Catholic church shooting, and let's not overlook the many killed every week in Chicago (of which the elected leaders of the city barely lift a finger to prevent). America is now facing violence unlike any time before. The respect for human life is at an all-time low.

We are watching people being cruel, having no respect, lacking compassion as 2 Timothy 3 speaks of "perilous times," danger, and persecution that we are now in.

What does this mean to our society when people publicly cheer and voice their approval of killing others they disagree with, saying their deaths are justified, and that they should not stop doing this? They show that violence is acceptable. This began with Antifa, the fires during covid; more recently, the support of the aggressive pro-Palestine movement against our own citizens on campus and in the streets.

Many people publicly voiced being happy that this murder took place, they are mentally disturbed and damaged beyond repair. The question is, are we permanently polarized?

I don't think I'm being hyperbolic; I'm putting the finger on the pulse of the country. No, Charlie Kirk's assassination was not just politically motivated. Far worse: It was demonically influenced and is ingrained in the very essence of our culture. This is really about our speech on faith and the truth. The conflict is about the light against the darkness.

None of this is going away soon. The deeper paradigm for us to consider is Isaiah's prophecy, explaining what is taking place today in how we live. Isa. 5:20-21: "Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil; Who put darkness for light, and light for darkness; Who put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter! Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes, And prudent in their own sight!"

Some people will have to face the facts. The truth is, we have a problem—the question that will need to be answered is, will persecution come to America? Hopefully, this is not the start of more to come, but scanning the web, it certainly sounds like it is.

There is a great deal of work to be done to reverse the corruption that has occurred as we race toward our own demise in Western civilization. What we have been seeing for a long time are people in charge who have no common sense or exercise critical thinking.

This was apparent when they put in a man who was nearly a vegetable to run the country; we find that he could barely sign his own name on paper, or was prevented from doing so. A formation took place in our country from within its offices of power, using their "leader" as a puppet to do evil against our way of life. Let's face it, demons are involved in this.

A Spiritual Moral War

Why are Democrats so involved in politics as if their lives depended on it? Because they do. You see, most (not all) Democrats do not believe in God (they have made this clear on their platforms), certainly not the true one. Being “Democratic socialists,” their involvement with politics is a life lived for themselves, as they want to have some type of control—over you. They use their politics and influence as a weapon against God and His people, and the result is that they become as gods to themselves.

So, where are we in this culture war? It's as some have pointed out: we are in a one-way civil war. The longer we are a post-Christian nation, the worse this will get. Secular humanism, postmodernism, new age spirituality, and the occult rush in to fill the void. This is a spiritual, moral war that has much to do with our freedom and speech. The opposition continues to call anyone who disagrees a Nazi or fascist (and racist). Their lives are based on their politics, their ideology. They will stop at nothing. There can be no negotiation, no compromise, with those who refuse to listen, who force you to capitulate to their amoral ways. This is what Kirk warned of: the threat level arises from the breakdown of dialogue.

We must understand that you can't reason with those who have no reasoning; many today have their consciences seared. How can you make sense with people who are so far away from reality, who believe men can get pregnant or that people are born having dozens of genders other than a male or female? Allowing men to compete against women, to breeze into victory. All of a sudden, mankind's whole history is no longer remembered, factual, valid, or applicable; it is revised. It's like saying a chicken can be a racehorse because it can run. If you worked at a job and the owner paid you in dirt and said it's money, you can't complain because that is how he sees the world. Extreme relativism is what we are facing; it's about those who do not know what reality is. What they have been taught is contrary to it. Life is not a video game, nor are we in a simulation!

The left has called us every name in the book, and some not listed. It takes courage and love not to react in hate toward people who hate you. But they can no longer speak of political discourse after they brought the temperature to the boiling point with their continual false accusations. Calling everyone they dislike a Nazi. Do they even know what a Nazi is? No, but it all sounds right to those with minor understanding. A Nazi is a “national socialist” who swore loyalty to Hitler's German party and participated in the elimination of the Jews and other undesirables. Hitler was responsible for the Holocaust and led the world into a war that killed more than 50 million people. They change the definitions to label someone guilty of what they perceive as evil by their opinions, not by facts.

Allowing the media to continually call certain people Racists, Fascists, or Nazis affects weak and unstable minds. Their intent is clear—to cause harm. This is how brainwashing takes place – this was heard over and over, even by a president. Most do not see it as wrong to remove a genuine threat to our freedom, democracy, and everything America stands for? Are we surprised someone tried to murder Trump?

There are a few voices of sanity left. Sen. John Fetterman is one. He says Democrats need to ‘Turn The Temperature Down’ and Stop Calling Republicans Fascists’!

Celebrating Evil?

When the temperature gets turned up, you find what you are made of. This has revealed the kind of humanity people have; unfortunately, a vast amount shows that they have NONE. Those who celebrate Kirk's death are no different than piranhas that smell blood in the water; it's pure natural instinct, their fallen nature being influenced.

People are reacting with heartless, vicious comments. I think if you can celebrate a person's death like this publicly, you should get your head examined, literally. No, he was not a Hitler, he never harmed anyone. If you didn't like his words, you had a choice: either challenge him or walk away. No one forced you to listen.

By a segment of our country celebrating his death, they show they have no moral compass, no conscience, and are lost in their amorality. They are against his values (which are actually the majority of the people of this nation's values). They have no values, except to "do what thou wilt," which is Satanism.

We are facing an influence of a rising demonic army in our country, though we do not fight against flesh and blood, the enemy is using flesh to foster its hate, by physical violence. 'evil ones' who want us DEAD. It is demons who celebrate death, especially of those who speak the truth.

At this point, I can specifically name the people who are on social media as a cheering crowd, but I won't acknowledge or empower their issues; they have a seared conscience. It's tragic because they are so self-unaware that they are the ones who are so hate-filled and unbalanced. The left (for a better term) has jealousy and violence built into its way of life, fomenting anger like Cain did to Abel. Some never learn and repeat the worst of humanity. Asmongold, a regular guy with common sense and humanity, airs his view.

And what of the political posturing, where we hear over and over that we are a democracy, repeated right now. This is something we have covered over the years. We need to hear the truth, we are NOT a democracy but a Constitutional Republic. We the people.

Some say these people celebrating his death are empty. I disagree, I see their inhumanity filled by demonic power influencing their hate. How can I say this? Consider that many are calling for his wife and children to be killed. They don't want this to stop; they are threatening people who supported him. The fact is, they want us all gone. Certain Muslims of the religion of peace have also joined in, and are just as repugnant and disgusting as the left. In fact, Islam is becoming strengthened, ready to flex its muscles.

Sane people of the radical left are few; as we watch them in unison with jubilation, delighting in a collective triumph by death (use discretion on video—of their words, copy link if it does not work).

The left is out to silence everyone they disagree with. On the right, some people are cautious, others are frightened to even speak their views in public, as no one wants to be physically attacked.

These agitators are not playing; they mean it. They are proud to be anti-logic, with low intelligence, and amoral. Those who think they know something speak and end up showing they are ultracrepidarians.

The media left argues this type of violence occurs on both sides, No it does not. Did any violence occur after the assassination of Kirk? No. We want this to stop, they want to justify it to continue. For what its worth Elon Musk put out a graph of "2023 Combined Violence Rates by Party" across the sum of 150 U.S. cities, shows the Republicans in red, total violence at 858, the blue bar for Democrats was 21,765.

A website dedicated to exposing those celebrating the assassination of Charlie Kirk has received over 50,000 submissions and is growing. Those reacting with heartless, vicious comments need to show some human decency, but they can't help themselves. Those rejoicing, celebrating his death, are being fired from all types of vocations; from government, schools, TV, and jobs. They assume they are secure because they have been acting this way for so long. If the population were not awake before, they certainly are now. They once got away with their vile comments, but this behavior will no longer be tolerated. This is a step in the right direction to bring back civility. There will be consequences because people who still have a conscience do not want to be near those who have none. It's made things dangerous.

Consider Congress Members showed no decency as they, Shouted 'No' when Asked for Anyone to Lead Prayer in Wake of Charlie Kirk's Assassination. Watch this; to understand this is why we get little done in Congress.

We have a glimpse into understanding the future where the world will celebrate the two prophets in Israel (Rev.11) when the beast from the abyss kills them after 3 1/2 years of their preaching the gospel in Jerusalem. Only to find them raised from the dead in 3 days in front of them. Then the people will know the God whom they fought against. Rev 11:11 great fear fell on those who saw them. "the fear of Lord," which we are told is the beginning of wisdom.

Our day turned to night

The news constantly neglects to cover the stories that actually affect us. One side immediately blames guns as the problem, not the people who plan to use one to kill. Forget gun control, how about anger management?

As one person put it, do you duck when you go into a gun store that is filled with guns? No, why? Because it's the people who are responsible. Pope Leo XIV spoke in his Sunday Angelus on the recent victims of the Annunciation Catholic School shooting in Minneapolis. He condemned the global spread of weapons, calling it a "pandemic of arms." He completely missed it? What about a sinful heart, filled with hate? Why is this being overlooked (on purpose?) Our Gun violence numbers are bad, with 18,000 murders yearly, but it still is less than in other countries. We are #6 in the world, far lower than Mexico or Honduras.

Should we ban all cars since far more people die in motor vehicle accidents, 43,000 each year in the United States?

We have provocateurs in the media on the left (and a few on the right), popularly called fake news. What it is – is oppositional reporting, purposely weaponized, purposely divisive, and highly destructive.

The impetus is more of a fight against what's true. So many have misquoted Charlie Kirk to lie about the justification for being killed. Some people lie with no remorse, this becomes very disturbing.

Why is there such a divide? Some are unable to think for themselves, like trained parrots; many repeat lies they've heard, because they like what they hear. This is what is meant by being a birdbrain.

To speak of him as hateful, saying it's his own fault, or to blame anyone but the actual person. It is to reject the responsibility to identify who expressed this evil. This is Satan's logic. Maybe if they took the time to listen to the words, think before reacting, we could have a civil conversation that brings progress and activates what used to be called common sense.

Was He divisive? Yes, because truth is divisive. But I know another person who was even more divisive than he was. Someone he and we follow. When did his truth become hate speech?

Charlie was not nasty; he was cordial and patient. When people got in his face, he did not yield an inch. He did not react violently or threaten anyone's life.

The day after his murder "KILL ALL CHARLIE KIRKS" has been spray-painted on the sign of a Seattle, Washington college. Is hunting season open on conservatives? Some seem to think so.

We are now seeing gasoline poured on the fires by the left for further violence, and those on the right who are fed up with the violence. We need caution, for we cannot become what they are. Some are saying they know of no way to really stop all this. Many of us do? Our culture needs a spiritual intervention. Let's pray God sends one.

Reliable news is almost a permanent oxymoron to the legacy media; in fact, these days, reliable anything seems to be rare. I fully agree, the media needs to be held responsible for so many misleading stories and blatant misinformation intended to foment hatred. Rumors and dishonest reporting can turn anyone against certain individuals in this nation.

The first step to bring an end to the chaos; on September 14, 2025, a viral social media movement has emerged demanding the reinstatement of the Smith-Mundt Act, following the assassination of Charlie Kirk. It is driven by online users who believe the law would hold media and online content creators accountable for spreading misinformation and hate speech, under the new name “Charlie Kirk Act.” The movement has gained traction after a viral video urged President Trump to restore the law, linking it to the need for greater accountability in public discourse. Aimed to increase transparency and provide reliable news.

What about free speech? Purposely lying to cause a result of harm or death is not what is meant by free speech.

DC

DC could easily stand for ‘doing crime,’ not just in the streets but in Congress. 29,348 crimes reported in Washington, D.C. last year, including 3,469 violent offenses, 1,026 assaults with a dangerous weapon, 2,113 robberies and 5,139 motor vehicle thefts.” D.C. had the fourth-highest homicide rate in the country.

DC is responded to by Trumps ‘DC,’ a Direct Countering against doing crime. Within two weeks, carjackings were down 96% from the same time period in 2024, robberies dropped 68%, and homicides were down 67%. The share of people convicted of violent crime fell from 10% to 7% and drug crimes from 9% to 5%, according to a Stateline analysis of data from the Deportation Data Project.

But they continued to insist everything was fine, that they were being intruded on by a fascist. When you side with what is wrong or evil, you will eventually become that.

There is little Protection by those elected or non-elected that will uphold the safety and rights of individuals. Law enforcement is denied by Mayors and governors who need it the most. Chicago's Mayor recently said, Law Enforcement Is a ‘Sickness.’ That Doesn’t Make Communities Safer. One side is afraid to see violence, the other is afraid of truth. Again, it is about reality.

Sanctuary cities are overrun with lawlessness. The radical left protects violent offenders, they act kinder to the criminals and crueler to the victims of their crimes. These people are dangerous as they oppose what is right. They allow what some have described as ticking time bombs out of jail to roam the streets. It's time for some old-fashioned USA law and order to take place. Once the crime rate in major cities decreases, the left will have no more chaos to exploit in their promises.

As co-belligerents that temporarily hold to ‘the enemy of my enemy has become my friend.’ The (Judeo/Christian) traditions of Western culture are inconsequential in their cultural revolution. Islam, and Communism both have the same goals, to undermine our Constitutional Republic. But in the end they will clash, both will end up on the garbage heap of history.

Benjamin Franklin responded to someone asking what kind of government do we have? His response, “A republic, if you can keep it.” Knowing full well that there are forces that will always come against this type of freedom. Certainly, allowing sharia law would be one of them.

We hear the radical left say America is trash and is not the greatest country. However, when asked if they were to leave, which country they would go to? They usually do not have an answer for This is because they haven’t followed through with any discovery.

Does the truth matter to anyone anymore, does it matter to you?

There are those who claim to be conservative and seek unity and influence in the church, but it's clear they do not fully align with our Christian beliefs, nor are they entirely opposed to what we oppose. This is especially evident on the topic of Israel, the land, and its people. Beyond replacement theology, there are individuals who desire to see Israel destroyed. The Bible states that this has always been Satan's goal. And it is becoming more common in these last days for a reason. We are getting closer to the day of reckoning.

Some who were once strong conservative warriors have either caved, burned out, or become confused by misleading info on major issues. Money may also possibly be involved in their change. There are two who need mentioning that I know longer consider on the right side, who have been confused and confusing others. In the shadows, is Candace Owens. 'The Story box' (Jay Fantom on youtube) has been reporting regularly on Candace Owens who BLAMES Israel for Killing Charlie Kirk. She still has millions of followers on social media because no one has noticed the radical change, which is not good, she is a convert to a certain type of Catholicism. I expect her to shift to another blame, as this is what she does.

Tucker Carlson has gone down the same rabbit hole, as so many others. He showed what changed by his interview with a nun from Gaza who was proven to speak lies without any challenge, she continually besmirched Israel. (Many have responded) (someone who lives there). What they are missing Tucker Carlson speaks about "defending Christianity," but he is far more vocal on what HE is against, which is Israel. Asked on Pierce Morgan's show, what is Terrorism, responding as a wordsmith, he changed the actual word definitions to defend his political opposition to Israel. He widened the meaning to be inclusive, when he needed to put a qualification. Terrorism is a planned, an intentional use of violence against non-combatants (innocents) to achieve a political, ideological, or religious goal. It can even include threats of violence for a goal. It does not have peace in its equation. And it is an initial action that is aggressive toward others, not a reaction. Sorry but his answer was insufficient, maybe his name should be changed to Ducker.

The greatest of the fallen angels, called the Devil, (the accuser) knows the Word. He prevents people from learning and understanding it correctly because he knows it sets them free from the bondage he has made for them (his matrix). He convinces people the Bible is just another religious book, no better or worse than others, you can choose whatever you want, it's all fine by God, just believe he exists!

An invisible battle is taking place for the spiritual ownership of people's hearts and minds. Satan has his apostles in the media who continually misinform people. In the pulpit, he has those who distort the Word of God, who make the narrow road into the broad road. Teach imaginary doctrines. He has had great success altering and distorting the words of Scripture to be removed from the context in which the authors wrote.

People need to understand Satan is real, and the most incredible creature God ever made. Ezek. 28:12, he was "the seal of perfection, Full of wisdom and perfect in beauty." All the wisdom and beauty God could put in a creature was put in Lucifer (Hebrew-Day Star) when he was created v.16. The emphasis is on was. There is no indication he has lost his knowledge (although it has become corrupted v.17), or his power and ability to influence. We cannot underestimate him having great power and influence in the world (Acts 26:18). He approaches his actions fully thought out, like a military leader to conquer. He is individually defeated by our wearing the armor of God.

Influencing control in both the political and world religious systems (Jn.14:30; Eph.2:2). "The whole world lies under the sway of the wicked one" (I John 5:19). In the very end, for a short time, the whole world will be entirely under his control. His main objective today is to deceive the Church; and to prevent Israel from their conversion.

What Christians are telling us?

Spend some time on YouTube, and you hear that asteroids are coming, Wormwood; a fake space invasion of UFOs is waiting. Financial collapse is coming, more plandemics are coming. That we live in a simulation, not reality. The first seal is open, the mark is already here, and many have it. The COVID-19 vaccine, even the swab, is the mark of the Beast. Disregarding everything the Bible says about it. The Jews are taking over the world, even though they are the smallest country and the 34th richest, and have their hands full every day with their hostile neighbors. Or we hear that Israel is a counterfeit, is really the synagogue of Satan. Turning the Scripture inside out (The Bible describes this group of people among the churches in Turkey, not a nation 1,900 years later). We hear the 3rd temple in Israel is inconsequential, for we are now the temple, spiritualizing the Scripture (Mt.24:15). That there is no rapture, only a tribulation, or the rapture is on this date, which did not happen!

There are also many who believe we have been, or are in the tribulation now, which goes for only 7 years, (not dozens or hundreds). Then there are those who claim that the Millennium had already taken place and we are in the little season of the last rebellion of Satan; regardless of not seeing any eternal people on earth or any proof that Jerusalem was ever the capital, with Christ ruling from there, as the scripture says. I have never seen so much falsehood coming into the church at one time under the guise of prophecy. It's always good to know what is going on but this is all confusion.

False AI videos are showing up everywhere on the net, advertising products for health, speaking on politics, UFOs, Nephilim, Giants today, ancient civilizations, flat earth, on every subject you can think of. One way to tell what is fake is how shiny the video is, with few speaking mistakes (if any). Someone needs to reel this all in; this has to be regulated, or within a year, the net will be overtaken entirely, and we will not know what is real or not. As it is, people are already questioning their own sanity with chat GPT. Seems our digital progress is going up in smoke.

Numerous people are making prophetic speculation videos who are constantly speaking with fear of what is going to happen. They remove you from walking in the spirit of truth. We have not been given a spirit of fear but of power, and love and a sound mind. Let's use it. There is no fear in love; but mature love casts out fear.

It has all become a critical mass of confusion, exactly what Jesus warned about; deception everywhere, that (if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect. Matt. 24:24, Mark 13:22). That kind of deception is here now, and increasing.

In conclusion

The Lord has got our attention. Evil is real and does not sleep; it is constantly thinking of ways to do more. It has become fixed in our culture, and will not let go of its grip. We are facing a demonic army that has been assembled in our country, but we do not fight against flesh and blood. The enemy is using fallen flesh, demonically influenced to carry his hate, causing physical violence. What does this mean as Christians? First, our goal should be to clean up the church. This shows the Lord we are willing to do what is necessary. God cares for the church first so he can have us affect the world, which is under Satan's temporary rule, to be set free from his nature and ways.

God gives us the way to live in these trying times.

1 Peter 3:10-12 For "He who would love life And see good days, Let him refrain his tongue from evil, And his lips from speaking deceit. Let him turn away from evil and do good; Let him seek peace and pursue it. For the eyes of the LORD are on the righteous, And His ears are open to their prayers; But the face of the LORD is against those who do evil."

We have been given the solution. The answer will not come by force, by law and order, nor by politics; Jesus has and is the answer. Let's Proclaim him! Remember what Jesus said, that all these things must take place, be of good cheer. It's good to be aware, but Christ let's focus on the Father's work.

May you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,

Mike Oppenheimer

*I have two new books.

One is specifically on what is driving the Apostasy, a warning to the church.

The other is on prophecy the Day of the Lord and Israel's salvation as a nation.
